

The AFG (TAS) AGM will be held on the 16th August to be followed by our Forestry Get Together and Seminar

Notice of Annual General Meeting 2018

Date: Thursday, 16th August 2018

Time: 4.45pm

Location: Board Room, The Tramsheds, 4 Invermay Road Launceston

Note Presidents Report will be tabled at the AGM. All members are encouraged to attend and participate.

The AGM will be followed by a Forestry Get Together and Seminar

Time: 6.00pm

Location: Tramsheds Launceston

We are very pleased the following speakers have agreed to talk to us:

- Ms. Penny Wells, newly appointed Chief Executive Officer of Private Forests Tasmania
- Dr Martin Moroni, Manager of Business Development PFT, on the Carbon Farming Initiative and the role that Carbon plays in the forest and environment.
- Forico's Mr Simon Cook, Certification and Compliance Manager with a presentation on Carbon Market Opportunities for Forest Managers.

This year, we are returning to the Tramsheds following a successful evening last year, where guests particularly enjoyed the opportunity to network and mix with likeminded people, The Invitation will be sent to many private forest owners and members of the Institute of Foresters (Tas). As places are limited, I encourage you to please RSVP immediately to secure your seat at the Seminar.

Regards

Nigel Calvert

AFG Tas Branch President